LEB MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR

No: 24 (September 10, 2018)

Subject: OBSERVANCE OF THE PHILIPPINE NATIONAL LAW WEEK

For: All Legal Education Institutions

In accordance with Proclamation No. 640, Series of 1995, and pursuant to the Resolution approved by the Legal Education Board En Banc during its 93rd meeting on August 29, 2018, all legal education institutions are directed to observe the Philippine National Law Week in the third week of this September, 2018 with meaningful activities that will heighten the appreciation for the rule of law not only among law students but the general public.

Further, classes in all law schools shall be suspended on September 19, 2018 and substituted with appropriate activities to be conducted with the active participation of law students and law professors alike, like academic symposia, public law lectures, and legal services. As far as practicable, law schools are encouraged to coordinate their activities with the local chapters of the Integrated Bar of the Philippines in their localities.

Law schools are directed to submit a written report to the LEB of the activities undertaken in observance of the Philippine National Law Week in compliance with this circular.
