LEB MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR

No. 47 (9 September 2019)

FOR : All Law Schools

CC : Integrated Bar of the Philippines
Philippine Association of Law Schools
Association of Law Students of the Philippines
Philippine Group of Law Librarians
Network of Academic Law Librarians
Federation of School Registrars Association
NCR School Registrars' Association

SUBJECT: OBSERVANCE OF THE PHILIPPINE NATIONAL LAW WEEK

In accordance with Proclamation No. 640, Series of 1995, all law schools are directed to observe the Philippine National Law Week on the third week this September, 2019 with meaningful activities that will heighten the appreciation for the rule of law not only among law students but the general public.

Further, in lieu of traditional lecture classes, all law schools are advised to conduct alternative learning activities on 19 September 2019, the designated Law Day in Proclamation No. 1477, Series of 1975, with the active participation of law students and law professors alike, like academic symposia, public law lectures, and provision of legal services to popularize and make more tangible the rule of law in our communities. As far as practicable, law schools are encouraged to coordinate their activities with the local chapters of the Integrated Bar of the Philippines in their localities.

Law schools are directed to submit a written report to the LEB of the activities undertaken in observance of the Philippine National Law Week in compliance with this circular.
