Dear Colleagues:

Warm greetings!

The Philippines is celebrating its 30th Library and Information Services (LIS) Month on November with the theme “LibREAL: Relate, Engage, Advocate, Lead”.

The Philippine Group of Law Librarians, Inc. (PGLL), as one of the recognized national association, has become a cohesive force as an instrument for the advancement of legal documentation and scholarship. PGLL remains committed to its mission in providing quality trainings for their members.

In celebration of LIS Month, PGLL in partnership with CE Logic conducting a free webinar on November 18, 2020 (1:00-4:00 PM) with the theme “Retooling Engagement for Advancement in Library Services (REALS)”.

The objectives of the webinar are: 1) to provide orientation about the various competencies of information professionals applicable in the development of individual and organizational services; 2) to help equip the participants with dynamic competencies and increase productivity; and, 3) to evaluate and develop existing competencies as perceived by the administrators and stakeholders.

The webinar is intended for information professionals, library administrators/managers, students, teachers and researchers. An electronic certificate will be given to all registered participants. For other details and inquiries, please contact any PGLL Board.

Thank you and we hope to see you all.

Respectfully yours,

VIVIAN A. LIRIO
Vice-President
Chair, Conference Committee
