Memorandum Circular No. 86
Series of 2021

SUBJECT: Observance of Philippine National Law Week and Law Day

By virtue of Presidential Proclamation No. 640, series of 1995, the third week of September every year is declared as the Philippine National Law Week. Furthermore, Presidential Proclamation No. 1477, series of 1975, declared September 19 of every year as Law Day.

Thus, we commemorate the Law Day on 19 September 2021, Sunday, cognizant of the enduring importance of the rule of law in promoting justice and progress for national recovery.

Similarly, this year's celebration of Philippine National Law Week would remind the legal education community and the broader Philippine nation of the centrality of the rule of law especially during these changing times.

All legal education institutions are therefore encouraged to conduct appropriate activities in support of the foregoing events in a manner that complies with the minimum health standards.
