

[LEB Press Release]

Launching of the Environmental Law Teachers Online Training Program

22 September 2021

The Legal Education Board (LEB) has virtually launched the Environmental Law Teachers Online Training Program in partnership with the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) Academy of Environmental Law, Asian Development Bank (ADB), Developing Environmental Law Champions and the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP).

The program is a 12-week online course which aims to provide capacity development assistance for environmental law professors in the Philippines. It also seeks to strengthen the environmental law curriculum and the development of online teaching methodology in the country.

LEB has partnered with the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law, ADB, Developing Environmental Law Champions, and UNEP in planning and designing the training program.

The online course sessions will formally begin on 29 September 2021 and will be conducted every Wednesday from 9AM to 12PM.
