LEB Memorandum Circular
No. 91 Series of 2021

SUBJECT: PHILIPPINE GROUP OF LAW LIBRARIANS' WEBINAR ON NOVEMBER 17-19, 2021

This is to invite all Legal Education Institutions to the training for law librarians entitled "Competency Advancement for Law Librarians (CALL)" brought to you by the Legal Education Board in partnership with the Philippine Group of Law Librarians. This is to be delivered from November 17-19, 2021, at 10 A.M via Zoom.

The objectives of the webinar focusing on enhancing leadership and management capabilities are: (1) to apprise of requirements that libraries must comply with in order to achieve and maintain high standards for their institutions and clientele as a whole and to offer better library services as professional librarians; 2) to gain knowledge on the trends, approaches and strategies in performing their functions especially brought by this pandemic and latest developments in the field; 3) to mobilize available resources and networks and participate with the activities organized by accredited professional library associations, and; 4) to prepare librarians to become qualified for the upcoming Career Progression of the Professional Regulations Commission (PRC).

Participants may register at <https://tinyurl.com/Pgllcall2021>. Attendance to the webinar is open for all information professionals, library administrators/managers, students, teachers, and researchers.

Please refer to the attached letter of PGLL Vice President Mr. Alvin E. Halcon and program for further details.

Thank you.

Dear Colleagues:

Warm greetings!

The Philippine Group of Law Librarians, Inc. (PGLL) has become a cohesive force as an instrument for the advancement of legal documentation and scholarship. PGLL remains committed to its mission in providing quality trainings for their members.

In partnership with Legal Education Board, we are pleased to invite you to a free 3-day webinar “Competency Advancement for Law Librarians (CALL)” to be held on November 17-19, 2021.

The objectives of the webinar are: 1) be apprised of requirements that libraries must comply with in order to achieve and maintain high standards for their institutions and clientele as a whole and to offer better library services as professional librarians; 2) gain knowledge on the trends, approaches and strategies in performing their functions specially brought by this pandemic and latest developments in the field; 3) mobilize available resources and networks and participate with the activities organized by accredited professional library associations, and; 4) prepare librarians to become qualified for the upcoming Career Progression of the Professional Regulations Commission (PRC).

The webinar is intended for information professionals, library administrators/managers, students, teachers and researchers. An electronic certificate will be given to all registered participants. For other details and inquiries, please contact any PGLL Board.

Thank you and we hope to see you all.

Respectfully yours,

ALVIN E. HALCON
Vice-President
Chair, Conference Committee
