Legal Education Board Memorandum Circular
No. 97, Series of 2021

SUBJECT: Webinar on Gender Sensitivity for Law Students

The Legal Education Board invites all first- and second-year law students to the upcoming webinar, delivered in partnership with the U.P. College of Law Gender Law and Policy Program (UP GLPP), entitled Gender and Development 101: A Webinar on Gender Sensitivity for Law Students, to be held on December 18, 2021 from 9:00 AM to 12:00 AM.

This webinar aims to help promote a gender-aware, gender-sensitive and gender-responsive legal educational environment, where gender equality and the human dignity of every law student, professor, administrative staff and the general public are respected and protected. At the end of the course, participants are expected to be able to 1) identify gender issues in the legal practice, in the academe and in the larger society; 2) explain gender-related concepts and principles; 3) recognize the various forms of gender discrimination, sexual harassment and sexually related abuses; and 4) identify the ways and means to properly respond to incidences of discrimination and sexual abuse.

Interested participants may send their registration by filling up the online form at: <https://tinyurl.com/Gender-and-Development-101>. For your guidance, please see the attached program of the event. For inquiries and concerns, you may send an email to upglpp@gmail.com.

Issued on December 3, 2021, Quezon City.
