MEMORANDUM FROM THE OFFICE OF THE CHAIRPERSON

No. 2022-003

TO : LAW SCHOOL DEANS

SUBJECT : LEGAL PRACTICE ANALYSIS SURVEY

The Revised Model Law Curriculum (RMLC) of the Basic Law Program, LEB Memorandum Order (LEBMO) No. 24, Series of 2021, highlights that legal education in the country should be focused on “practice-readiness” of law students instead of only concentrating on passing the bar examinations. Section 5 of the said LEBMO states, “The basic law program through the revised model curriculum shall produce graduates who are professionally competent, practice-ready, active, self-directed and lifelong learners, responsible, highly ethical, honorable, socially mindful and gender sensitive; willing leaders and servants; and, thinkers and innovators in law.”

From the foregoing, a study titled, “Legal Practice Analysis as a Platform for Enhancing the Law Curriculum and Philippine Bar Examination,” is being conducted to determine the responsiveness of law schools in proffering the necessary training to its students in the practice of law and in addressing the society’s legal concerns. A survey questionnaire was formulated, and the same is currently available online.

To aid in the said study, the Legal Education Board earnestly enjoins all law schools through their faculty members and alumni to participate in the Legal Practice Analysis by taking some time to answer the survey questionnaire accessible through <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/LEAPLegalPracticeAnalysis> until 13 November 2022.

The law schools’ support and the active participation of their faculty and alumni in the aforesaid study will be highly appreciated not only by the LEB but by the entire legal education community. Together, let us contribute to the improvement of our legal community.
